John Rigby, of the Vale Enterprise, has been in Ontario this week soliciting subscriptions and advertising for his paper. He is going to issue a special edition next month exploiting the resources of the county. If the Vale business men would take advantage of the advertising columns of the Enterprise to let the people know they are in business and have something to sell it would not only pay them big returns on the investment, but would tend to build up an even better paper than they now have.

Brief News of the Week

A department of business efficiency has been added to the public school system of Los Angeles.

Helpful Hints.

To boil milk without fear of burning, place three or four tablespoonfuls of water in the pan, let it boil rapidly a minute or two, then add the milk.

A little bit of soap added to the starch will make the clothes iron better and have a lovely gloss.

For a nervous headache, knot the hair high on the head, remove the waist and, while bending over the wash basin, apply a sponge soaked in hot water to the back of the neck. Repeat this several times and the pain will disappear.

Chocolate Pie.

One pint of milk, one heaping tablespoonful of corn starch, yolks of two eggs, sugar to taste and chocolate to taste. Bananas or cocoanut may be used with this same custard, omitting the chocolate, adding extract to taste, placing bananas in the bottom of baked pastry shell and pouring custard over them. Finish with meringue made of whites of two eggs beaten till stiff; then beat into them four tablespoonfuls of granulated sugar; spread on pie; brown in oven.

Baby's Bib.

A dress shield may be cut in half and each half used as the lining for the baby's bib. Make a removable cover of linen or lawn edged with lace or embroidery.

YOU WONT HAVE TO RUN, BUT YOU'LL HAVE TO HURRY, IF YOU WIN A PRIZE

Miss Dottie Ward Won This Week's Prize

Some of the Candidates Have Made Great Gains in the Last Few Weeks. You Can Win a Prize, If You Get Out and Hustle

More interest was manifested in the free automobile contest during the past week than any previous one. Many of the contestants and their friends want that order for $5 worth of merchandise from one of the merchants who has an advertisement in our issue of October 9, also the 5000 votes which we are giving with each dollar paid on subscriptions, new or old.

There is nearly one more week to work for this prize and the 5000 votes.

The other merchants are also going to be liberal and they are offering some special inducements on some very seasonable goods, read their advertisements and then take advantage of the bargains offered.

Have you noticed how the totals are shifting around? How some of the low ones are getting started toward the top of the list? You can make just as good a showing if you will devote a little spare time each day with your friends and neighbors, telling how much you would like to have the free automobile and how much you will appreciate any little assistance they may give you. Try it one afternoon and see how ready they are to help you.

All the merchants interested in the contest are making a special effort to have you call at their stores by giving extra votes on seasonable lines. Be sure and read the big free auto advertisement and also the special notices of the firms interested.

Look over the list of candidates and see how they are shifting around and you will realize it will be an easy matter for you to get as many votes as any of them, if you do a little work among your friends.

Miss Dottie Ward received the special prize this week.

SNAPSHOTS AT CELEBRITIES

Judge J. W. Gerard Named Ambassador to Germany.

The appointment of Justice James W. Gerard of New York to the important post of ambassador to Germany is generally regarded as a recognition of special fitness for the position. The new ambassador, those who know him best say, is a man of strength, character, ability and culture—a worthy representative of Uncle Sam.

The new envoy to Berlin is a native of the Empire State and is forty-six years of age. He was graduated from the New York Law school in 1892 and began the practice of his profession in New York city. He went to the front in the Spanish war, serving as an aide-camp on the staff of General McCookry Butt. After the war he resumed the practice of law and in 1907 was elected to the supreme court bench on the Democratic ticket for a term of fourteen years. Justice Gerard is president of the Mexican Society of New York and was one of the three civilian commissioners appointed in 1910 by President Taft to represent the United States at the centennial celebration in Mexico. During the presidenvention presidential campaign he was an active Wilson man. Justice Gerard's wife is a daughter of the late Marcus Daly, one time copper king of Montana.

Minister to China.
Dr. Paul S. Reinsch, professor of political economy in the University of Wisconsin, who has been appointed minister to China, is a writer of recognized authority on oriental topics and far eastern politics. His works on those subjects have been translated into both Japanese and Chinese.

Born in Milwaukee in 1869, he was graduated from the state university in 1892 and from the law school in 1894. Going abroad, he studied at the University of Berlin and also at Paris and Rome, returning to continue his graduate work at Wisconsin. In 1911-12 he was Roosevelt exchange professor at the University of Berlin, where he delivered a series of lectures on "Present Conditions in America."

Dr. Reinsch has been active in pan-American conferences and in societies for the study of international law and historical research and has won wide reputation as a lecturer on international politics. He has been head of the department of political science at the University of Wisconsin since 1908.

A Paint Cleaner.
Save the tea leaves for a few days, then steep them in a pail for half an hour; strain and use the tea to clean varnished wood. It requires very little polish, as the tea acts as a strong detergent, cleaning the paint from all impurities and making it equal to new.

Chicken Croquettes.
Two pounds of chicken meat chopped or ground fine, two eggs beaten, one slice of bread crumbed, one-half cupful of sweet cream, one tablespoonful of butter, salt and pepper. Make into balls, dip in eggs, then in cracker crumbs and fry.
